CHICAGO, SATURDAY, JULY 21, 1900.

PRICE, 5 CENTS.

WASHINGTON PARK RACING.

Yesterday was the last day but one of the Washington Park meeting of 1900, and this afternoon the greatest of all western handicaps, the Wheeler, will be run. Ever since this handicap was first instituted in 1890 it has been looked upon and talked about as the principal event of the club's twenty-five days' meeting, with the exception, of course, of the American Derby.

From all present indications the Wheeler will be decided over a fast track, as the soil was drying out rapidly last evening, and a stiff breeze from the northeast, which was then blowing, is bound to put the course in record-breaking condition. Besides the Wheeler Handicap six other well-filled, evenly-balanced races are offered, and on paper it seems that the closing day will furnish better sport, if possible, than did any other day during the meeting.

Friday is always an off day on race tracks, and yesterday was no exception to the general rule. On account of a bad track one of the regular six events was declared off, but in its place a five-furlong two-year-old race was run.

There was no special feature to the program and no close finishes, still the racing was good and speculation in the ring was extremely lively.

A two-year-old handicap run over the Woodlawn course, which is fifty-five yards more than three-quarters of a mile and started out of a chute was the best race of the day. Seven youngsters started in this event and so evenly were the weights distributed that each of the seven had a strong following and was well backed. Schoolmaster, with Bullman up, is the youngster that the majority pinned their faith to but he was none too well fancied and opening at 2 to 1 went back in the betting to 13 to 5. Rome Respass thought well of his Irishman—Sif colt. Grandon, whose impost was but 97 pounds, and told all his friends so. incidentally putting a good bet on the colt himself.

The Chute is an excellent place to start a field of horses from, and Mr. Dwyer sent the youngsters away on the journey well together, and the bunch came on to the main track head and head. Knight wasted no time with Grandon, and passing the half mile post he was in front by a head, Kid Cox being second and Battus third. Around the far turn Grandon and Knight increased their lead to a half length and went this still better by the time the stretch was reached, where the Respass colt was two lengths in front, but in the final quarter he tired a trifle, and at the wire he was only one length in front of Handy Man, and was out to the last ounce. The latter probably ran a better race than did the winner. He was jostled and knocked about at every turn, and never really got straightened out until the stretch was reached, then he made up a lot of ground and was catching the winner fast. Kid Cox, with top weight 115 pounds, finished third.

P. Dunne seems to have a shifty colt in Scales, which he recently purchased from Albert Simons. He was made a 7 to 5 favorite in the mile three-year-old selling race and "delivered the goods" finely. Scales is a big, long-striding fellow that runs best on a hard, fast track, and as the soil cupped under him he naturally labored to keep within striking distance of his horses during the early part of the journey, but when he got fully on his stride and struck a streak of good footing on the far turn he worked his way to the front quickly, and after an early drive to overhaul Wax won rather handily by a half length.

The Ryan horses have not been doing so very well at Washington Park, but The Pride managed to get home in front of an ordinary lot of sprinters in the fourth event. This good-looking gelding by Dundee—Beeswing was strongly backed at 2 to 1, and when he won the ring was hit hard. Bullman rode The Pride and, waiting on Georgie and Queen Escher until the stretch was reached, he went to the front at his leisure and at the wire was a length and a half in front of Heigh Ho.

Green Morris won the first race with his three-year-old Pupil. This colt seems to be an in-and-outer and for this reason the public fought shy of him and even with Bullman up refused to back him at his opening price of 2 to 1. Consequently by post time his price had gone up to 16 to 5. Pupil broke sixth, and was never better than third until the stretch was reached where he went to the front without much urging and won handily by about two lengths.

Our Nellie found the track to her liking and with Bullman up she won the fifth race, which was at nine furlongs, from end to end. Admetus, well ridden by Caywood, finished second and The Bobby third. Tappan, the 11 to 5 favorite for the race, got into a jam on the first turn and fell. Winkfield, who rode Tappan, lighted flat on his back and was not hurt in the least.

Prosper La Gai, at 5 to 1, won the substituted five furlong two-year-old race by two lengths from Anna Chamberlain.

Owners at Washington Park may make their nominations to the Harlem summer stakes with James Loughman, who will be at the south side course today and tomorrow, to receive entries. On Sunday and Monday Hart Dernham will be at Hawthorne for the same purpose.

Sidney Lucas, 125, and Advance Guard, 120 pounds, have been matched for $500 a side, at one and one-quarter miles, as a special race to be run at Windsor next Tuesday. The Windsor Jockey Club will add $500 for the race. Caruthers & Shields and Thompson Bros. will each deposit their side bet in Judge M. N. Macfarlan's hands today. The track must be fast or the match is off.

L. H. Ezell, J. J. Marklein, W. H. Robinson & Co., S. S. Bender, Joe Bryan, E. J. Baldwin, Cherrington & Co. and Capt. "Buck" Franklin will ship their horses to Windsor Sunday. It will be an open betting ring there.

HAWTHORNE STAKES.

WINDSOR OPENS MONDAY.

A dispatch from Detroit to the Enquirer of yesterday says: Windsor Driving Park Association has postponed the opening of its meeting from Saturday until Monday, owing to the fact that the Blue Ribbon trotting meeting at Detroit, on account of a postponement for rain, will not close until Saturday evening. Everything is in readiness at the Windsor track, however, for the thirty-day meeting. There is at this time no lack of horses. The 317 stalls in the Windsor Park are already filled or engaged, about 275 horses now being quartered within the track's enclosure. Nearly 100 are stabled outside of the track, and accommodations have been secured on the outside for fifty more. Yesterday forty-three horses arrived from St. Louis, and Racing Secretary Elmer Lawrence, who came from Chicago this morning, brought with him applications for eighty-four stalls.

The Windsor people are not worried on the score of not having a sufficiently great number of horses for their meeting, but the perplexing problem with which they are now confronted is where to put the horses for which accommodations have been requested. The fact is, the Windsor people are so situated that they can afford to be a little fastidious, and tomorrow the owners of about fifty skates that are occupying stalls at the track will be required to vacate them. The parties referred to are squatters. They arrived here from various points while the trotting meeting was in progress, and when the trotters left the track they proceeded to help themselves to stalls without permission from Secretary Hanrahan or any one else in authority. They will be required to vacate to make room for the lot to come from Chicago Sunday. Alex Shields has arrived at the track with Zoroaster and all the others of the Caruthers & Shields string, ten head, with the exception of Advance Guard. The crack three-year-old was left at Washington Park to run in the Wheeler Handicap Saturday and will be shipped here Sunday.

Other recent arrivals from Chicago were: P. M. Civill, 5; W. McInerney, 4; James Davis, 3, and C. R. McLean, 2. Among those who have signified an intention to ship to Windsor from Chicago Sunday, are: Thompson Bros., with the American Derby winner, Sidney Lucas, and the others of their string; W. H. Robinson & Co., with 14, including John Yerkes and Larkspur; "Lucky" Baldwin, with 5, in charge of W. J. Speirs; J. J. Donovan, 10; J. H. Smith, 8; J. J. Marklein and Sidney Bender, 7; W. M. Wallace, 7; T. H. Ryan, 4, and Tony Licalzi, 4. L. H. Ezell has also asked for stalls, intimating that he would probably bring his entire string of 14 here.

Chicago will also furnish a number of bookmakers for the meeting at Windsor, where there will be an open betting ring, as against a syndicate ring at Highland Park.

A special from Chicago last night is to the effect that the following bookmakers will leave Windsor Sunday night: Social Smith, J. P. Atkinson, W. H. Howell, Jack Scully, Chambers and Walker, Sam Wagner, J. R. Hughes and R. Simpson. The Windsor people and the horsemen are very much elated over the prospects for the coming meeting.

HAWTHORNE NOTES.

Van Brunt, a handy timber-topper, owned by D. A. Irons, fell dead at Hawthorne yesterday morning. The horse had been given an exercise gallop over the jumps and was being led back to the stable when it dropped dead from heart disease.

Winner—B. c. by Sir Modred—School Girl.
Went to post at 2:30. At post 5 minutes. Start fair. Won handily; second, third and fourth were doing their best. Pupil liked the going, was well ridden, and won a well deserved victory. Emigre had clear sailing throughout and came with a terrific rush at the end. He had no excuses and this is as good as he is capable of doing. Goebel got away well in his stride, showed his usual amount of speed, but hung when the pinch came. Euterpe was badly pocketed in the stretch, otherwise she would have been third. Aloha II. came from a long way back in the last three furlongs. Lamachus ran a poor race; so did Goldone, who did not like the footing. Isabinda showed some speed, but quit in the stretch. Innovator could not get out of his own way.
Scratched—19169 Belle of Holmdel, 109.
Overweights—Isabinda, 14 pounds.
Pupil, place, 6 to 5; show, 1 to 2. Emigre, place, 3 to 1; show, 8 to 5. Goebel, show, evens.

19349 SECOND RACE—1 Mile. $500 added. $75 to second; $25 to third. 3-year-olds. Selling.

Time, 12:1, 25, 50, 1:16, 1:42.

Winner—R. g. by The Bard—Equipoise.
Went to post at 3:05. Off at the second break to a good start for all but Silver Garter, who stumbled as the barrier arose. Won easily after an early drive; second, third and fourth were hard at it. Scales is a good gelding and won in a high-class way. He is a big, long-striding horse and was outrun in the first part of the race. When the real racing began he made the others look cheap. Wax was well ridden and did his best, and at the end was a tired horse. Tayon was too much used in the first part of the race. He runs best from behind and he would have been a keen contender had Enos placed him in the first part of the trip. Lake Mills was coming strongly at the end. Silver Garter lost much ground by stumbling at the start. Mellocole showed speed but could not carry it far.
Corrected weights—Tayon, 110.
Overweights—Mellocole, 2 pounds.
Scales, place, 3 to 5; show, out. Wax, place, 8 to 5; show, 4 to 5. Tayon, show, 3 to 5.

19350 THIRD RACE—Woodlawn Course. (3-4 mile and 55 yards.) $1,000 added. $200 to second; $100 to third. 2-year-olds. Handicap.

Winner—Br. c. by Iroquois—Sif.
Went to post at 3:40. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won hand ridden and out to the last ounce; second and third were driving hard. Grandon, with a pull in the weights and good racing luck, barely lasted long enough to win. The colt tired badly in the last sixteenth and Knight used excellent judgment in not drawing his whip. Handy Man had a rough journey and ran a good race. This seems to be an unlucky colt. Kid Cox could not concede the weight. He got a good send-off, had clear sailing, and no excuse can be offered for his defeat other than the weight. Schoolmaster was shut off when coming out of the chute and also several times during the journey. Telephone Girl appeared dangerous on the far turn, but could not stand the pressure at the end. Battus must have a hard, fast track to do his best.
Scratched—(19308) Vitellus, 116.
Overweights—Handy Man, 3 pounds; Battus, 3.
Grandon, place, 2 to 1; show, 6 to 5. Handy Man, place, 2 to 1; show, 6 to 5. Kid Cox, show, 3 to 5. Schoolmaster, place, evens; show, 1 to 2.

Time, 12, 24, 49, 1:15.

Winner—B. g. by Dundee—Beeswing.
Went to post at 4:15. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won cleverly; second and third were doing their best. The Pride was slow to get to going, but went to the front like a flash at the head of the stretch and won with something in reserve. He is a handy sprinter. Heigh Ho was hardly at her best, but ran a good race and will probably be hard to beat when next out. ABE FURST is in winning form. He looked good, but was inclined to loaf, and Knight had to ride him hard all the way. A rest would be beneficial to Algareta. Georgie and Queen Esher had it hammer and tongs through the first half and both quit in the stretch.
Corrected weights—Algareta, 119.
The Pride, place, 7 to 10; show, out. Heigh Ho, place, 3 to 1; show, 7 to 5. ABE FURST, show, 8 to 5. Queen Esher, place, 4 to 5; show, out. Georgie, place, 8 to 5; show, 4 to 5.

Winner—B. f. by Siddartha—Lady Nell.
Went to post at 4:45. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won driven out; second and third were under full sail. Our Nellie got away fully in her stride, showed more speed than she has in any of her recent starts and ran a really good race. She was tiring at the end and could not have gone much farther. Admetus had no excuses and ran his best race. Caywood rode him with good judgment and made no mistakes. The Bobby, as usual, was right there. Tappan jumped on the horses in front of him on the first turn and went down. No damage resulted from the fall.
Scratched—19241 The Devil, 109.
Our Nellie, place, evens; show, out. Admetus, place, 4 to 5; show, out. The Bobby, place, 7 to 5; show, out. Tappan, place, 7 to 10; show, out.

Winner—Gr. c. by Faraday—Altivola.
Went to post at 5:15. Off at the first break to a perfect start. Won handily at the end after a hard early drive; second and third were driving to the limit. Prosper La Gai improved suddenly and won like a fairly good colt. He interfered with Lake View Belle sharply at the head of the stretch. Anna Chamberlain took the longest route and made a game showing. Lake View Belle was on the inside, in the worst going all the way. Curd Gillock showed speed, but never appeared to have a winning chance. It was an ordinary lot and an ordinary race.
Prosper La Gai, place, 7 to 5; show, 3 to 5. Anna Chamberlain, place, 7 to 5; show, 3 to 5. Lake View Belle, place, out. Curd Gillock, place, evens; show, out.

Went to post at 2:30. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. W. B. Gates was best in the going and was well ridden. Joe Doughty showed improvement and ran a good race. Connie Lee was cut off at the first turn and almost went to her knees. She might have been second otherwise. Walkenshaw went to his knees on the first turn. Rush Fields ran a bad race.
W. B. Gates, place, 1 to 2; show, out. Joe Doughty, place, 6 to 1; show, 2 to 1. Connie Lee, show, 1 to 2. Walkenshaw, place, 1 to 2; show, out.

Went to post at 3:00. At post 11 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. El Caney was much the best. He cleared his field at the start and won all the way without being fully extended. Under an inexperienced rider El Derim ran a good race and easily held the others safe. Marie G. Brown ran well and finished stoutly. Tekla got off badly, made up much ground and then tired.

Winner—Ch. c. by Belvidere—Zara.
Went to post at 2:32. At post 11 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second driving. McCue waited with Bangor for a mile, then took the lead and kept it under a strong ride. Handcuff was weakly ridden, and with a stronger finisher up might have won. Lindula tired in the stretch run. Einer ran well for a mile.

Scratched—(19312) Alsike, 102.
Overweights—Bangor, 3 pounds; Einer, 2.
Bangor, place, 1 to 2; show, 1 to 7. Handcuff, place, 2 to 5; show, 1 to 10. Lindula, place, 3 to 5; show, 1 to 5.

Winner—B. f. by Tenney—Maxine Elliott.
Went to post at 3:02. At post 1 minute. Start fair. Won driving; second the same. Gertrude Elliott showed her usual speed, but was tiring at the end. Colonel Padden was closing fast and would have won in another stride or so. Balloon ran well. Humboldt got a bad start and ran the best race. Baron Pepper was poorly handled and unlucky. Apple of My Eye tired in the stretch. Flickamaroo got away poorly but showed but little speed.

Scratched—19252 Sweet Tooth, 115.
Gertrude Elliott, place, 4 to 1; show, 2 to 1. Colonel Padden, place, 8 to 5; show, 4 to 5. Balloon, show, 6 to 1. Apple of My Eye, place, evens; show, 1 to 2. Baron Pepper, place, 8 to 5; show, 4 to 5.
